Next steps

The device is usually tested the same day it arrives at our premises. If there is a warranty claim, a replacement unit will be sent on its way no later than the next working day. If we do not find any issues on the returned device, we have to charge you 8.00 EUR for the costs for packaging, return transport and the time spent on testing and paperwork.

Privacy information

Your address data is never saved by us. However, we usually deliver via DHL and need to send your address details to DHL for the shipping order. We can not control what DHL does with your address details.
